

Emergency Funds Request

The Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund III, authorized by American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (ARP) and passed by the federal government, provides emergency assistance to students. The emergency assistance funding as provided by CRRSAA helps currently enrolled students with extraordinary one-time education-related costs that have arisen due to the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic. As guided by the Department of Education, the funding shall be distributed based on financial need.

Do any of the following circumstances apply to you or a member of your family:

- Job loss
- Reduction of pay
- Medical expenses
- Death in immediate family

If so, you might qualify for an adjustment known as a Professional Judgment. An adjustment of this kind could potentially qualify you for additional financial aid. In order to begin the process, please file the 2021-2022 FAFSA at www.studentaid.gov and then contact our Professional Judgment Specialist (Marilae Latham) at mlatham@jbu.edu.

If you have questions or need assistance with this form please contact the JBU Financial Aid office at finaid@jbu.edu.

Please note, if your family's financial circumstances have changed due to a decrease in income as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, please contact the JBU Financial Aid office at finaid@jbu.edu to inquire about the FAFSA adjustment process.

Disbursement Authorization

Grant JBU permission to apply funds directly to your student account

- Checking this box indicates that you as a student of John Brown University give the institution permission to disburse the Emergency Grant Funds directly to your student account for the purpose of covering a current balance due (e.g. tuition, fees, room, board, or books). If you do not select this option, the funds will be sent to you directly in the form of a direct deposit or check. Any emergency funds approved beyond the current balance due will be disbursed directly to the student through direct deposit or check. Please contact the financial aid office at финаid@jbu.edu before submitting this form if you have questions about this option.

Please explain the nature of this request and any context regarding the amount(s) requested.
